

2020 MDRT Executive Committee Spans 4 Continents, Guiding More Opportunity and Value to Regional and Global Members

Cross-continent representation offers the association's 72,000 members more professional growth opportunities and localized content.

PARK RIDGE, Ill. (Sept. 4, 2019) — The 2020 Executive Committee strengthens MDRT's global presence in key membership growth regions as Regina Bedoya, CLU, ChFC, takes her place as 94th President and newcomer Peggy Tsai, RFP, CCFP, assumes the role of Secretary. In total, the five committee leaders now represent four continents, creating a unique combination which elevates MDRT's service and embodiment of its global membership base.

Bedoya, a 26-year member succeeds 32-year member Ross Vanderwolf, CFP, who will become the Immediate Past President. Ian James Green, Dip PFS, a 21-year member, and Randy L. Scritchfield, CFP, LUTCF, a 35-year member, will move into their new roles as First and Second Vice Presidents while newcomer Tsai, an 18-year member, will serve as Secretary.

With a diverse new leadership team and membership growing internationally, MDRT's 2020 initiatives will focus on elevating global connectivity and business growth opportunities. The Executive Committee will equip and empower members to live more rewarding personal and professional lives by providing an integrated shared learning culture and proven strategies for success at every stage of their career. Members physically and digitally cross borders, collaborate with peers and never stop advancing their careers through new meeting offerings, local MDRT Days and fresh content in 11 languages on the award-winning Resource Zone.

"MDRT's most valuable asset is its membership, and we continue to invest in initiatives that enhance benefits, allow our members to truly experience the magic of MDRT, access colleagues from around the world and bring us closer to our full human potential," Bedoya said. "Our diverse leadership team is determined to inspire collaboration across borders and promote limitless growth for our members through more accessible global offerings."

As active MDRT members with a combined experience of more than 130 qualifications, the leadership team is uniquely positioned to influence the membership and overall profession. The 2020 Executive Committee is committed to consistently empowering members to hone their expert knowledge to achieve continuous personal and professional success in an ever-evolving business.

2020 Executive Committee continues expansion of MDRT membership offerings for limitless growth opportunities with in-person and digital resources.
